Forest is a home
Imre Sooäär/ Kersti Kuusk

Every little creature, amongst the forest trees
Winter follows summer, so it's always been Friendship lasts forever, nature want's to see
If it is important both for you and me

Forest is a home for every bird and tree
Forest is a home for every bug and bee
Forest is a home for every animal
Forest is a home for even you and me

All the little anties, crawling day and night
Neverending stories, how they clean the land
In the rain and sunshine, working very hard
They don't need the malls, with the icecream stalls

Humans are consumers, taking all they see
Going to relax amongst the ancient trees
Don't disturb the nature, you can better see
How to save your forest, all your hear and see
